FITT PITT

From all reports, both students and parents are enjoying the weekly ‘bootcamp’ sessions.

There has been some interest generated from parents of Year 2 students, who would like their children to participate in this program.

In discussions with Kylie, she is happy to ‘trial’ Year 2 students depending on their ability and maturity.

AROUND THE SCHOOL

Last Friday, Windsor Public School students in Stage 1, travelled by bus to attend a live performance of Snugglepot and Cuddlepie at the Riverside Theatre in Parramatta. The students studied the text, written by author May Gibbs, as part of their term 2 writing program on characterisation. Both teachers and students enjoyed seeing the characters and story come to life on stage. Thank you to Mrs Robyn Chard for organising the day, it was the perfect way to complete the unit of work.

Parenting Ideas - Don’t yell, move closer

By Michael Grose

As a busy parent it’s easy to give your voice a work out when you don’t get the cooperation you want from your children.

You know how it goes.

You want your son or daughter to give you some help and they don’t respond.

Perhaps, you want a child to stop annoying his or her sibling.

Or you simply want your kids to QUIETEN DOWN inside.

When your request for cooperation is ignored.

So you do what over 90% of parents do. That is, you repeat yourself. Then if that’s still ignored you RAISE the volume.

‘I’ll yell at them. That should work!’

Hmm, I’m not so sure.

Usually yelling only succeeds in producing parent-deaf kids.

If yelling, shouting or raising your voice is a habit you’ve developed to get cooperation then here’s a great strategy to use instead.

Next time your kids ignore a reasonable request move close to them and quietly repeat your request once.

No aggression, just expectation.

It means you may need to stop what you are doing. So be it.

Proximity is a powerful influencer. Great teachers know this. That’s why they move around in class so much: to teach and also to manage.

So save your voice for conversation, encouragement and affection.

Use your body effectively to manage kids.

The key, of course, is to do it.

My challenge for you is to bite your tongue when you want to yell. Take a deep breath (as the Mood Meter teaches you) and move into your child’s proximity. Don’t stare him down. Just be close to him or her.

Keep doing it and the cooperation levels you get from your kids will increase astronomically over time.

But you’ve got to do it.

In future don’t yell, move closer.
